President's Message

By the time you read this, Art Affair 2008 will be history. I would like to thank those 40+ members who were able to exhibit at Art Affair. Thanks go to the members of the Art Affair board who have worked countless hours to ensure the show's success. Thank you, too, to all our volunteers who gave their time and energy to help make the show run more efficiently.

Last month's program about encaustic painting, presented by Mary Melton, was very enlightening. It is always exciting to learn about something new. To grow as artists we must constantly be experimenting and trying new approaches. Perhaps some of us will try our hand at using bees wax and a propane torch.

Thanks to Richard Leslie for taking over the job of Hospitality Chairman.

Welcome to the new members who juried in last month. Please take the opportunity to let us get to know you by volunteering your time in some capacity.

For our December meeting we always have a pot luck luncheon at a member's home. (Do you believe that is next month! I was shocked when I realized that.) We need someone to offer their house for the luncheon and for someone to coordinate the luncheon. I will be asking for volunteers at our next meeting.

Keep creating Art! See you at the meeting on November 7th.

Sarah
